Section B: Gifts and Hospitality

8) Any person from whom I have received a gift or hospitality (during my term of office as a parish councillor) with an estimated value of at least £25:-

NB: Your attention is drawn to your parish council's Code of Conduct for parish councillors, which may make provision in respect of the acceptance of gifts and hospitality. Generally, as a councillor, you should avoid accepting any gift, hospitality or other favour which could give the impression of compromising your integrity, honesty or objectivity. In particular, you

(1) should avoid any behaviour which might reasonably be seen as motivated by personal gain;

(2) should exercise caution in accepting any gifts or hospitality which are (or which you might reasonably believe to be) offered to you because you are a parish councillor;

(3) should never accept significant gifts or hospitality (i.e. anything with a value of £25 or more) from suppliers or contractors seeking to acquire or develop business with your parish council; and

(4) may be required, within 28 days of receipt or acceptance, to notify the Monitoring Officer of any gift you receive or hospitality you accept (of a value of £25 or more) for inclusion in the register of interests.
